

CAMPERS GEAR LIST

(Please read carefully)

Please deliver a contribution of baking to the kitchen on arrival and make sure the person who drops you are camp signs off before they leave ☺

What to bring to camp...

Bike requirements:
	Mechanically reliable for three full days of riding (please do any oil changes and mechanical needs before camp)
	Tie-downs for transporting your bike during camp
	Tools for basic bike maintenance
	Fuel in appropriate container for three days riding (if you need to refill, please bring sufficient $ to cover costs)
	Chain lube and any other oils you may need
	Spare air filters for the whole camp or air filter oil and cleaner and something to clean air filters in
	See Equipment Regulations attached below for bike mechanical requirements
(The following items are recommended but optional)
	Spare brake & clutch levers
	Spare tubes for front and rear tyres
	Chain lube and any other oils you may need

Compulsory dirt bike riding gear:
	Approved helmet
	Boots 25cm high
	Jersey – heavy weight cotton & long sleeves
	Trousers - long leather, nylon motocross or heavy worsted
	Gloves
	Goggles
	Body Armour - must include back protection
	Cold/wet weather jacket to ride in
(The following items are recommended but optional)
	Knee Pads & Braces
	Neck brace
	Wet weather riding gear
	Spare set of riding gear

Personal Gears: (name all your items clearly as it is your responsibility)
	Sleeping bag
	Pillow
	Toothbrush & paste
	Other toiletries
	Casual clothes and footwear for evenings
	Warm clothes for cool evenings
	Warm jacket
	Drink bottle
	Sunhat
	Exercise footwear
	Towels – swimming & showers
	Swimming togs
	Large plastic bag for dirty clothes and gear (in case wet)
(The following items are recommended but optional)
	Bible, pen and notebook
	Extra sports gear like rugby balls, card or board games
	Motocross DVD's (appropriate ones)

Please DO NOT Bring: (If found with these items they will be confiscated and further action may be taken - Please let us know if you have a problem with not bringing any of these items to camp)
X	Alcohol
X	Drugs
X	Guns (includes BB-guns)
X	Knives
X	Energy drinks
X	Vapes/Cigarettes